

WHO WE ARE?

Adaptive Threat Solutions (ATS) is a high threat security company founded by Andrew McKellips to assist the Greater Seattle area to protect public safety during the rise in crime. We're proud to provide specialize services with well-trained professional officers with military and law enforcement background, or equivalent trained background.

A TRUE DEFENDER

PROVIDING PEACE OF MIND

Our goal is to provide businesses, schools, religious organizations, and private homeowners of our community the security they search for during a time where your chance of being a victim of a violent crime is 1 in 152 and property crime is 1 in 19:
